FROM THIS DAY FORWARD—10
SOWING AND REAPING IN MARRIAGE

7 Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. 8 The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. 9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

Gal 6:7-9

1) YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW.

If I smile at you * Flip you off.

Grace, thoughtfulness—Criticism, Controlling, Complaining

Woman are multipliers. (6 kids)

Don't like what you are getting—what you are giving.

2) YOU REAP WHERE YOU SOW.

Plant a seed over here—should I expect a tree over here?

Invest all my passion in hobby, kids, career, where will I get a harvest?

God is my one. My spouse is my two! Priority of marriage.

Our marriage is as good as we decide it's going to be.

Amy

Don't feel like being nice, feel like forgiving, feel like working.

How many other areas of life can you make that excuse?

Not going to feed my baby—don't feel like it.

Not work—don't feel like it.

Not pay taxes—don't feel like it.

Not giving up—doesn't just mean we're not going to divorce.

Not going to stop Seeking God, Fighting Fair, Having Fun, Pure

Reap a HARVEST—Intimacy, Story, Integrity

Harvest—if you do not give up!

What could the Harvest look like?

9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Gal 6:9
