

What's in a Name?

From little hamlets to large homes throughout the world, people ask the same questions, “Does God know me?” “Does God love me?” “Can God ever forgive me?” Underneath these questions lies an even more basic issue. What is God really like . . . who is He?

Do you know what your name means literally? Does it convey something about you? In biblical times the Hebrew name of a person often conveyed a significant message. A name may represent something specific, such as a physical characteristic or an incident at birth or anticipated future accomplishments. In the Bible, much is revealed about God through His various names. However, unless you are reading from the actual Hebrew text, some of God's attributes as revealed in His names are unfortunately buried in the translation. That is why it is valuable to unearth these hidden treasures.

El Elyon

“God Most High” (Genesis 14:18-20)

El Roi

“The God Who Sees” (Genesis 16:13)

El Shaddai

“God Almighty”¹ (Genesis 17:1)

El Olam

“God Everlasting” (Genesis 21:33)

“The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.”
(Proverbs 18:10)

Q: “I often feel that God is distant. How do I overcome my feelings of anger toward Him?”

When you do not have a sense of God's presence, He is present nonetheless. In those times you will need to walk by faith and choose to know that He is there because God's Word says that He is there. You will need to literally override or ignore your feelings. God is God, and your feelings are simply your feelings. Remind yourself of His character traits and praise Him for them. In this way you will be acknowledging His presence and His promise to never leave you. Plan a time to walk and talk with Him, praising Him for who He is and for all He has done for you. Thank Him for the promise of His presence in your life.

“Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.”
(Proverbs 3:5-6)

Q: “Aren't Christians arrogant in believing that Jesus is the only way to God? Isn't that being narrow-minded?”

Truth is narrow. Jesus, who is God, claimed that He is the only way to God. Christians merely repeat the truth that Jesus proclaimed about Himself. We may not like to hear the truth, but it is true just the same.

“Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.’”
(John 14:6)
